Overview of the policy and legislative framework

- 2011 ● General Law on Migration and Aliens (Ley General de Migración y Extranjería; Ley No. 761) The main purpose of the law is to implement Nicaragua's migration policy. It also refers to consular services for Nicaraguans living abroad. Additionally, it creates the National Council on Migration and Aliens, (Consejo Nacional de Migración y Extranjería), which is officially responsible for designing actions and programmes to promote engagement between Nicaragua and its citizens abroad. However, the law is not yet operational.<sup>3</sup>
- 2017 ● Guidelines of the Human Development Programme (Ejes del Programa Nacional de Desarrollo Humano) 2018-2021 very briefly addresses migration issues, with references to regulation of migratory flows, ensuring efficient services for migratory documents and procedures and the protection of the rights of Nicaraguans abroad.<sup>4</sup>

➤ Trends

In general, the Nicaraguan government does not engage with its diaspora. Although the 2021 electoral law grants Nicaraguans abroad the right to vote, due to political bias, despite the thousands of Nicaraguans abroad, the current government has not enabled voting from abroad. It also makes very little effort to engage with the diaspora economically, despite the significant economic impact of its remittances. Another example of the lack of interest from the government towards its diaspora was shown during the COVID-19 crisis when the Nicaraguan government kept its border closed, not allowing its citizens living abroad to return, until neighboring countries pressured the Nicaraguan government to let them in.<sup>5</sup>

The Nicaraguan diaspora can be divided in two groups, the first one includes those who emigrated between the early 1970s to the late 1990s, mostly victims of the civil war and natural disasters.<sup>6</sup> The second group is formed by migrants linked to the social and political crisis of 2018, mainly composed of people who supported protests against Daniel Ortega.<sup>7</sup> The current government has been unwilling to collaborate with the diaspora and has taken out explicit mentions of the role they could play in the new National Plan to Combat Poverty and for Human Development 2022-2026.<sup>8</sup>

The Nicaraguan diaspora is engaged in political activities focused on improving education and social and economic conditions for Nicaraguans and in advocating for freedom, justice and democracy in Nicaragua.<sup>9</sup> The work of organisations such as the Nicaraguan Freedom Coalition (NFC),<sup>10</sup> the Anti-Corruption Party in Nicaragua (PANA)<sup>11</sup> and the Diaspora Global Nicaragüense (DIASGLONIC),<sup>12</sup> are examples of the diaspora active participation on political issues. Part of the diaspora has also promoted actions against Ortega's government, including stopping remittances, and activating solidarity networks.<sup>13</sup> The diaspora has also asked for

Achievements

Achievements in the field of diaspora engagement in Nicaragua relate explicitly to policy interventions from international stakeholders, like IOM, the private sector, the diaspora or other organizations.

Obstacles

- Informal organisations: Most Nicaraguan diaspora organisations are social media groups doing locally based-activism without an obvious view to long-term development.<sup>15</sup>
- Inability to vote: The vote of Nicaraguans abroad is a right established in article 122 of the Electoral Law (Ley Electoral No. 331); however, it has never been applied due to a lack of political will.<sup>16</sup>
- Social and political crisis: One of the main causes of Nicaraguan migration is the social and political crisis that began in 2018.<sup>17</sup> As the Nicaraguan diaspora is quite engaged with the opposition, there is no government outreach or intention to reach out to its nationals abroad for fear that they will be critical of the government.

SPOTLIGHT: effective practices

ProNicaragua Investment Promotion Agency 2002

Created by the government, this agency delivers guidance with contacts and advice for those who are seeking to invest in Nicaragua. Although not specifically targeting the diaspora, this is an option for the diaspora to invest or start a new business in their country.<sup>18</sup> In 2018, Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) reached USD 1,06 billion and was centered mainly on industry, finances, telecom, business & services, and energy.<sup>19</sup>

Financial inclusion for remittance recipients 2014

In partnership with the International Organization for Migration and a consortium of foundations, Central America and Mexico Alliance for Migration (CAMMINA), a financial inclusion project for remittance recipients was developed with the private bank BANPRO. The purpose was to increase rates of savings for Nicaraguans receiving remittances. This project aimed to enhance financial literacy and practices, as well as provide information on financial products. More than 10,000 clients were beneficiaries and savings through the scheme totalled US$ 960,000.<sup>20</sup>
